

I would like to add own words of affirmation to the statement you are receiving. I am opposed to media conglomeration, especially in a time where media manipulation is so rampant. Democracy cannot take this kind of media control. Diversity is essential.